SYNGENTA AG;

SYNGENTA CORPORATION;
SYNGENTA CROP PROTECTION, LLC;
SYNGENTA BIOTECHNOLOGY, INC.; and SYNGENTA SEEDS, INC.,

Defendants.

DEFENDANTS SYNGENTA CORPORATION, SYNGENTA CROP PROTECTION, LLC, SYNGENTA BIOTECHNOLOGY, INC., AND SYNGENTA SEEDS, INC.'S
NOTICE OF REMOVAL

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1332, 1441, 1446, and 1453, defendants Syngenta Corporation, Syngenta Crop Protection, LLC, Syngenta Biotechnology, Inc., and Syngenta Seeds, Inc. (collectively, “Syngenta” or “Defendants”), expressly reserving all rights otherwise to respond to this lawsuit, including but not limited to any objection to improper venue, hereby remove the above-captioned case, which was filed in the Third Judicial Circuit of Madison County, Illinois, and captioned No. 15-L-1504, to the United States District Court for the Southern District of Illinois.

This case is removable because this Court has jurisdiction under the Class Action Fairness Act (“CAFA”), 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d), and thus removal is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1453(b).

REMOVAL JURISDICTION

1. This case is a civil action that was filed on November 17, 2015 in the Third Judicial Circuit of Madison County, Illinois, styled Wiemers Farms, Inc., et al. v. Syngenta AG, et al., No. 15-L-1504. See Compl. (attached as Ex. A). Plaintiffs purported to serve Syngenta Biotechnology, Inc. with the Complaint on December 7, 2015, see Executed Summons (attached as Ex. B) at B1, but as explained below, see infra para. 7, Syngenta Biotechnology, Inc. has merged into Syngenta Crop Protection, LLC and no longer exists as a separate corporate entity. No other Defendants have been served.<sup>1</sup>

2. Removal is timely under 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b). Defendants have filed this Notice of Removal within thirty (30) days of when the Complaint and summons were served on December 7, 2015. See Murphy Bros., Inc. v. Michetti Pipe Stringing, Inc., 526 U.S. 344, 348-49 (1999); see also Phoenix Container, L.P. ex rel. Samarah v. Sokoloff, 83 F. Supp. 2d 928, 930 (N.D. Ill. 2000) (“The Supreme Court recently clarified § 1446(b) by holding that the thirty-day removal period does not begin to run until a defendant is formally served with the complaint.”) (citing Murphy Bros., 526 U.S. at 353-55).
3. Removal to this Court is proper because the Southern District of Illinois, East St. Louis Division, is the district and division embracing the place (Madison County, Illinois) where the action was filed. 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a).
4. As required by 28 U.S.C. § 1446(a), Defendants have attached to this notice “a copy of all process, pleadings, and orders served upon” them. More specifically, the following documents are attached: (a) plaintiffs’ Complaint (Ex. A), and (b) all process, pleadings and orders that have been served upon Defendants (Ex. B).

<sup>1</sup> Defendants Syngenta AG and Syngenta Crop Protection AG are Swiss companies that have not been served. Neither their consent nor joinder is necessary for removal under CAFA, see 28 U.S.C. § 1453(b) (permitting CAFA removal “by any defendant without the consent of all defendants”), or under § 1446, see 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b)(2)(A) (requiring only those “defendants who have been properly joined and served [to] join in or consent to the removal of the action”) (emphasis added).

5. Upon filing this Notice of Removal, Defendants will provide written notification to plaintiffs' counsel and will file a Notification of Removal (attaching a copy of this Notice of Removal) with the Third Judicial Circuit of Madison County, Illinois.

BACKGROUND

6. Plaintiffs are individuals who reside in and, upon information and belief, are citizens of Illinois, Minnesota, Iowa, North Carolina, Indiana, Nebraska, South Dakota, Kansas, Missouri, Virginia, North Dakota, South Carolina, Wisconsin, Ohio, Colorado, Alabama, Michigan, Florida, Tennessee, Arkansas, Kentucky, Texas, Louisiana, Idaho, Maryland, Mississippi, Nevada, New Mexico, New York, Pennsylvania, and Georgia for jurisdictional purposes. See Compl., Ex. A ¶¶ 1-1431.
7. No Defendant is a citizen of Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Nebraska, South Dakota, Kansas, Missouri, Virginia, North Dakota, South Carolina, Wisconsin, Ohio, Colorado, Alabama, Michigan, Florida, Tennessee, Arkansas, Kentucky, Texas, Louisiana, Idaho, Maryland, Mississippi, Nevada, New Mexico, New York, Pennsylvania, or Georgia. Defendants Syngenta AG, Syngenta Crop Protection AG, Syngenta Corporation, and Syngenta Seeds, Inc. are corporations, each of which is incorporated outside of these states and has its principal place of business outside of these states. Id. ¶¶ 1433-35, 1438; see Hertz Corp. v. Friend, 559 U.S. 77, 93 (2010) (holding that a corporation is a citizen of its place of incorporation and its "principal place of business," which is "the actual center of direction, control, and coordination" of corporation's activities). Defendant Syngenta Crop Protection, LLC, is a limited liability company organized under the laws of the state of Delaware, Compl., Ex. A ¶ 1436, and does not have any member that is a citizen of the above named states. See Belleville Catering Co. v. Champaign Mkt. Place, L.L.C., 350 F.3d 691, 692 (7th Cir. 2003) ("[L]imited liability companies are citizens of every state of which any member is a citizen.”). Although plaintiffs have also named Syngenta Biotechnology, Inc. as a defendant, Syngenta Biotechnology, Inc. was merged into Syngenta Crop Protection, LLC as of December 31, 2014. Prior to this merger, Syngenta Biotechnology, Inc. was incorporated in Delaware with its principal place of business in North Carolina. Compl., Ex. A ¶ 1437.

JURISDICTION EXISTS UNDER THE CLASS ACTION FAIRNESS ACT

8. Congress enacted CAFA to “ensur[e] Federal court consideration of interstate cases of national importance.” Standard Fire Ins. Co. v. Knowles, 133 S. Ct. 1345, 1346 (2013). To further Congress’ intent, the Supreme Court made clear just last Term that CAFA must be interpreted “broadly” in favor of removal and that ““no antiremoval presumption”” applies in ““cases invoking CAFA.”” Dart Cherokee Basin Operating Co., LLC v. Owens, 135 S. Ct. 547, 554 (2014); see also, e.g., Dudley v. Eli Lilly & Co., 778 F.3d 909, 912 (11th Cir. 2014) (“Applying this binding precedent from the Supreme Court, we may no longer rely on any presumption in favor of remand in deciding CAFA jurisdictional questions.”). CAFA creates federal jurisdiction over and makes removable “any civil action in which the matter in controversy exceeds the sum or value of $5,000,000, exclusive of interest and costs, and is a class action in which any member of a class of plaintiffs is a citizen of a State different from any defendant.” 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2)(A); id. § 1453(b) (“A class action may be removed to a district court of the United States in accordance with section 1446 . . . .”). “Class action” is defined by the statute to include a “mass action.” Id. §§ 1332(d)(11)(A), 1453(a). A case is removable as a mass action if (1) there are ““monetary relief claims of 100 or more persons””; (2) those claims ““are proposed to be tried jointly on the ground that the plaintiffs’ claims involve common questions of law or fact””; (3) there is minimal diversity of citizenship; (4) “at least one individual plaintiff . . . seek[s] recovery exceeding $75,000”; and (5) the plaintiffs’ claims, when aggregated, put more than $5 million in controversy.

Bullard v. Burlington N. Santa Fe Ry. Co., 556 F. Supp. 2d 858, 859 (N.D. Ill. 2008) (quoting 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(11)), aff'd, 535 F.3d 759 (7th Cir. 2008). All five requirements are satisfied here.

9. Claims For Monetary Relief On Behalf Of 100 Or More Persons. The Complaint asserts claims for damages on behalf of 1,431 plaintiffs, see Compl., Ex. A ¶¶ 1-1431, which exceeds CAFA’s requirement that a removable mass action consist of at least 100 plaintiffs, see 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(11)(B)(i).

10. Complaint Seeks To Try Claims Jointly Based On Common Questions Of Facts Or Law. The Complaint expressly alleges that there are “significant questions of law and fact [that] are common to all Plaintiffs, and the claims of all Plaintiffs are due to be tried together and jointly.” Compl., Ex. A ¶ 1450 (emphasis added); see also id. ¶ 1449 (alleging that “[a]ll claims involve common questions” of law and fact). In addition, by joining all of the plaintiffs together in a single complaint, Illinois procedural law treats the complaint as requesting a single trial of all joined plaintiffs’ claims. See Bullard, 556 F. Supp. 2d at 860 (holding that plaintiffs’ proposal of a joint trial of their claims was “inherent in the very fact that plaintiffs filed a single joint complaint” because “fil[ing] one action joining all 144 plaintiffs under a single caption” requests “a single trial [a]s the default rule” under Illinois procedural law).

11. Minimal Diversity Of Citizenship. Minimal diversity exists because plaintiffs include citizens of Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Nebraska, South Dakota, Kansas, Missouri, Virginia, North Dakota, South Carolina, Wisconsin, Ohio, Colorado, Alabama, Michigan, Florida, Tennessee, Arkansas, Kentucky, Texas, Louisiana, Idaho, Maryland, Mississippi, Nevada, New Mexico, New York, Pennsylvania, and Georgia, and none of the Defendants is a citizen of any of those states. See supra paras. 6-7; 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2)(A) (minimal diversity met where “any member of a class of plaintiffs is a citizen of a State different from any defendant”); see Hart v. FedEx Ground Package Sys., 457 F.3d 675, 676-77 (7th Cir. 2006) (same).

12. More Than $75,000 In Controversy For At Least One Plaintiff's Claim. According to the Complaint, “[e]ach Plaintiff claims actual damages exceeding $75,000, exclusive of interest and costs.” Compl., Ex. A ¶ 1432; see, e.g., Bullard, 556 F. Supp. 2d at 859 (finding individual amount in controversy satisfied where complaint alleged that “many of the claims asserted herein have a value in excess of $75,000”).
13. $5 Million Aggregate Amount In Controversy. The face of the Complaint confirms that the aggregate amount in controversy exceeds $5,000,000. Because the Complaint alleges that “[e]ach Plaintiff claims actual damages exceeding $75,000” and there are 1,431 total plaintiffs, Compl., Ex. A ¶¶ 1-1432; see supra para. 9, there is at least $107,325,000 in controversy. See, e.g., Bullard, 556 F. Supp. 2d at 859 (finding aggregate amount in controversy satisfied where plaintiffs alleged that “many of the claims asserted herein have a value in excess of $75,000” and therefore “[e]ven if only half of the 144 individual plaintiffs are seeking damages of $75,000, their 72 claims would exceed $5 million in the aggregate”). The Complaint also alleges that the defendants’ challenged conduct caused “billions of dollars of damages to U.S. exporters, including farmers, farm landowners and farming entities.” Compl., Ex. A ¶ 1464. Moreover, in addition to compensatory and consequential damages, plaintiffs also seek punitive damages and injunctive relief. Id. ¶ 1474; see Cadek v. Great Lakes Dragaway, Inc., 58 F.3d 1209, 1211-12 (7th Cir. 1995) (“Where both actual and punitive damages are recoverable under a complaint each must be considered to the extent claimed in determining the jurisdictional amount.” (quoting Bell v. Preferred Life Soc’y, 320 U.S. 238, 240 (1943)); Tropp v. W.-S. Life Ins. Co., 381 F.3d 591, 596 (7th Cir. 2004) (“[T]he cost a defendant incurs in complying with injunctive relief is a legitimate consideration in a jurisdictional inquiry.”).

14. None of CAFA’s narrow exceptions apply. See Appert v. Morgan Stanley Dean Witter, Inc., 673 F.3d 609, 618 (7th Cir. 2012) (“CAFA was enacted to grant[] broad federal jurisdiction over class actions and establishes narrow exceptions to such jurisdiction.”) (alteration in original). The local-controversy exception does not apply because none of the Defendants is a citizen of Illinois. See 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(4)(A)(i)(II)(cc) (requiring in part that “at least [one] defendant is a defendant who is a citizen of the State in which the action was originally filed”). The home-state controversy exception and discretionary exception do not apply for the same reason. See 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(4)(B) (requiring in part that “the primary defendants, are citizens of the State in which the action was originally filed” for the home-state controversy exception); 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(3) (requiring in part that “the primary defendants are citizens of the State in which the action was originally filed” for the discretionary exception); Hart, 457 F.3d at 679 (same for both home-state controversy and discretionary exception). Nor does the single-event exception apply. See 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(11)(B)(ii)(I) (applies where “all of the claims in the action arise from an event or occurrence in the State in which the action was filed, and that allegedly resulted in injuries in that State or in States contiguous to that State”). Plaintiffs do not allege that all of their claims arise from a single event in Illinois, but instead allege that their claims arise from a number of acts over a number of years undertaken by Syngenta entities located both inside and outside the United States (none of which is located in Illinois), including (a) Syngenta’s decision to commercialize and sell Viptera and Duracade corn seeds in various states, and (b) certain representations made outside of Illinois by different Syngenta entities. See Compl., Ex. A ¶¶ 1442, 1459-63; see, e.g., Nevada v. Bank of Am. Corp., 672 F.3d 661, 668 (9th Cir. 2012) (single-event exception applies “only where all claims arise from a single event or occurrence” within the state). And the Complaint alleges that plaintiffs were injured outside of Illinois and outside of states contiguous to Illinois. See Compl., Ex. A ¶ 1444 (alleging that injuries were felt by “[m]ultiple Plaintiffs [who] reside in and are citizens of states which are not contiguous to Illinois,” including “North Carolina, Minnesota, Alabama, Arkansas, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Kansas, Louisiana, Maryland, Michigan, Mississippi, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, New York, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, and Virginia.”).

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Defendants remove this action from the Third Judicial Circuit of Madison County, Illinois, to the United States District Court for the Southern District of Illinois.
